LEAGUE DOINGS.

Seniors.

ROYALS 7—SHAMROCKS 5.

April 25.—The Royals defeated the Shamrocks to-day in a hit and run game. The first two innings gave promise of a close game, each team scoring in the first. In the third however the Shamrocks went up in the air and let in five runs. The Royals' turn for an airship ride came in the fourth inning when Welter made a bad throw to first with two men down, the Shamrocks then brought three men across the plate. They decended, however in time to save the game. J. Dwyer starred on second for the Royals. Chas. McArdle did the grandstand stunt for the Shamrocks.

Three base hits, Fitzgerald; hits off Harrison 3; hits off Fiely 6. Strike outs by Fiely 9, by Harrison 6. Hit by pitcher Fieley 2. Umpire Fr. Bart.

Batteries; Fieley and Welters
Harrison and Grathwohl.

CARDINALS 5—LAURELS 2.

April 26.—One of the best games of the season took place last Wednesday when the Laurels and Cardinals clashed for the first time. One bad inning however in which the Cardinals scored five hits marred what would have been a real pitchers battle.

Lill pitched his usual good ball and was steady throughout the whole game. Westhoven, his opponent, came in for his share of the honors also, and after the second inning the Cardinals were unable to touch him except for one hit.

Manager Copenolle is very enthusiastic about Westhoven's work, and in an interview after the game, he stated that just as soon as he can get the rest of his men rounded into shape he would give them all a run for the pennant.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Cardinals	0	5	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	5	7	5
Laurels	0	1	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	2	3	7

Batteries: Lill and Beckman
Westhoven and Stepp.

ROYALS 1—IMPERIALS 0

April 27.—The Royals won the laurels of victory this afternoon in a pitchers battle. No one of either team reached first in the first two innings, and only one in the third. This was Cotter, and by fast base stealing he brought in the only score of the game.

Innings.	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Royals	0	0	1	0	0	1	1	4
Imperials	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	1
Batteries: Royals, Fieley and Welters
Imperials; Sabados, Coleman

“AMONG THE JUNIORS.”

DOVES—vs—PIRATES.

April 22.—The Pirates avenged their last defeat by taking an easy victory from the Doves by the score of 20 to 5. The heavy batting of the Pirates was easily the feature of the game. The honors were divided between Kihm who scored two home runs and a two bagger and Norbert Murphy who had two three baggers to his credit.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R.	H.	E.
Doves	0	1	0	0	0	0	2	1	1	5	7	13
Pirates	0	0	7	1	6	2	0	4	x	20	17	8
Batteries: Doves; Tokartz, McDonald and Nix.
Pirates; Kihm and Debrecht

DOVES—vs—GIANTS.

April 24 — The Giants won their first game by defeating the Doves in a very interesting struggle, the score being 6 to 5. The stick work of R. Murphy featured the game and the steady twirling of Lambert helped his team to victory.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Doves	1	0	4	0	0	5	5	8
Giants	1	1	1	1	2	6	4	10
Batteries: McDonald, Tokartz & Nix.
Lambert and Allen.

GIANTS—vs—REDS.

April 27 — The Reds added another victory to their list when they won from the Giants by a score of 6 to 5. Both pitchers were in the best of form and allowed only two safe hits, but one of these was Lambert's terrific home run drive.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Giants	2	2	0	1	0	5	2	7
Reds	0	3	1	2	x	6	2	4
Batteries: Lambert and Allen.
Mueller and Roberts.

REDS—vs—CUBS.

April 25—Owing to the fast playing of the Reds they found it an easy task to defeat the Cubs. Roberts and Mueller were the stars of the game, and we are sure that the time is not far off when their names will appear on the pink page.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	R.	H.	E.
Reds	0	0	0	2	1	3	3	0
Cubs	0	0	0	0	1	1	1	7
Batteries: Mueller and Roberts.
Kozaick and LaMair.

AMATEURS.

April 27— The game between the Naps. and the Senators opened the Amateurs' season, and the latter team won by the score of 20 to 19. An exceptionally classy game was offered to the few spectators, and considering that it was the first game, we can expect some great stunts when these players once round into good form.

Batteries: Senators; Quinn, Keating and Ernst.
Naps; Farrel, Fackler and Holtzbauer.

EDITORIAL.

THE WEATHER MAN is giving the athletes a rest, and postponing the base-ball schedule, so that there will be many games left over for June, and probably making a third round impossible. As the league now stands, it appears as though there will be a close run for first place before the week is over. Three teams are debating the honor. The Royals are a bunch of hard, steady workers. The Cardinals have a pretty steady battery, hard to drive for many hits, while the Shamrocks have just begun to show their fielding strength. The Laurels seem to have a little hard luck. "Westy" is pitching excellent ball, but his team does not seem able to run bases sufficiently well to win the game. Sabados, having been out of the game for some time because of his eyes, is showing up better than could be expected. If he keeps it up as he has been, the Imperials will be able to make a strong bid for the pennant.

WEEKLY TENNIS REPORT.

As the Base Ball League is now formed and the players in line, attention will naturally centre on the opening of the Tennis season. Courts C and D are already in good shape and with a little help from the students, courts A and B can soon be put in excellent condition.

The racquets and balls are now on hand, the nets will arrive by the first of the week. As soon as they arrive the season will begin. Let all join in and help to make the year a successful one in Tennis annals.

H. Moran, Gen. Mgr. of Tennis.

LOCALS.

Reinick — What is the matter Skeets, did you get mercury on your ring?

Skeets — No, I think it is quick-silver.

Prof.—Did you ever hear of any other bark besides the bark of a tree?

Reinick—Yes, I read in the paper that a bark sank on Lake Erie, not a dog's bark either.

Schmitz — What state produces the most marriages?

Prof.—Well, I don't exactly know that.

Schmitz—Coleman was trying to tell me that the state of Matrimony produces the most.

Debrecht — Say, Sulzbach, was you with Goetrude when de water began to boin?

Sulzbach—Sure, did you ever see water boin?

Witzel thinks he can get big game in Maine with his air-rifle.

Conversation between second and third tables:

Third Table — Will you trade us a bun for a dish of shavens and Wanamaker?

Second Table—Yes.

Third Table—But what will you do with Mart?

Second Table—Trade him for a dog and then shoot the dog.

Fat Schmitz—I tell you, fellows, that peach pie I ate on the Monon made me sick.

Friends—Made you what——?

G. Aman— Say, Magsam, what kind of FERTILIZER is the best?

Magsam—I don't know, but TOM KENNEDY is the CHEAPEST.
